

JARRETT CLAIMS ELECTION; FRAUD SHELL IS HURLED

Maul, and in the eighth precinct of the fourth district, Oahu; and in this behalf the undersigned alleges that the ballots claimed to have been cast at said precinct were, as a matter of fact, not cast by Democratic voters or by voters at all.

The undersigned further represents and claims that at Waiakoa (fifth precinct of the fifth district, Oahu) he received 48 votes. Just how badly Wilson was defeated on the Big Island is shown by the following schedule of returns, contained in Sheriff Jarrett's letter:

Precinct	Jarrett	Wilson
Volcano Road	4	0
Hilo	16	3
Papaikou	45	0
Honohina	11	0
Laupahoehoe	22	1
Panuwili	7	0
Honokaa	2	0
Kukuihale	22	0
Makalea	19	0
Honomaikai	51	1
Kalahe	7	0
Kailua	25	0
Hookens	55	0
Waholuna	2	0
Pahala	8	1
Totals	296	6

Makes Formal Claim.

"Wherefore," Jarrett concludes, "it is claimed by the undersigned that he has been fairly and legally elected Democratic national committeeman for the territory of Hawaii at said election by a substantial majority, and he therefore demands of your committee that a certificate of nomination to said office be issued to him by your committee."

The present situation regarding the fight in the Bourbon ranks, as outlined today by a well-informed party man, is that, on account of the fact that a majority of the territorial central committee is absolutely controlled by the McCandless-Wilson faction, Jarrett will be counted out and Wilson counted in as far as the recent election is concerned.

This means, it was pointed out, that the fight will be taken to the Democratic national committee, which will sit immediately upon the opening of the national convention at St. Louis. It is confidently expected by the supporters of the high sheriff that the will of the majority of the Democratic voters of the territory will be respected, and that Jarrett will be seated as Democratic national committeeman from Hawaii.

The Jarrett supporters do not concede that Wilson really carried the island of Maui. It is asserted that in several precincts on the Valley Island, including a part of Paia and Kahului, there were no elections held, but that manufactured returns were sent in and these favor Wilson.

A communication from Walluku, Maui, forwarded to Honolulu by an interested party worker, says, in part: Tell of Proxy Votes.

"It is true that 32 Democrats in Hawaii voted by proxy. Their vote was cast by the assistant secretary and not by Paikiko. The proxies were given by them to John Wilcox, the assistant secretary, and S. M. Waiakoa, chairman of the judges of election, with instructions to vote out (the Jarrett) ticket straight, except in two instances.

"Unquestionably, these 32 ballots should be thrown out, but the other ballots should be allowed to remain and be counted. We know who voted by proxy. The others cast their own ballot. "The principal reasons they gave for voting by proxy were that it was too far for them to go to the polls. . . . They say that they believed they had a right to vote by proxy. Of course, that does not make it right, but it removes the bad odor from things. But at Paia I do not believe that they even voted by proxy. I believe the ballots were stuffed or not voted at all."

This Election "Secret."

Further communications received regarding the election state that there was no election at Paia; that there was no one at the polls aside from the so-called president of the alleged Democratic Club, who also acted as chairman of the judges of the election. It is reported that the so-called president refused to give any information as to who was voting in his precinct, claiming that the vote was to be "secret" on account of the wishes of a "plantation boss." It is alleged that he refused to permit anyone to see the rolls of members, or to give the names of the officers of the alleged club.

It is further alleged that there are not more than five Democrats at Paia; yet, as a matter of fact, 41 straight votes were cast for the McCandless-Wilson ticket.

"And that is something about which to make the people of Maui laugh," a supporter of Jarrett declared today. "It is a huge joke. No doubt the election at Paia was a fraud pure and simple."

Other Frauds Alleged. Regarding the Oahu election there appears to have been a "nigger in the woodpile" so far as the election in the eighth precinct of the fourth district is concerned.

In this particular precinct Wilson received 67 votes, and Jarrett 1. The election there was managed entirely by Jesse Ululhi, one of the candidates for delegate to the national convention. When the day of election came around a large number of Democrats who are friendly towards Jarrett were able to find out where the voting was being held.

Certain Jarrett supporters claim that Ululhi announced that the election would be held at the regular meeting place in Luso street; but, it is declared, the election really was pulled off in a house back of Punch-bowl, and that those who would have cast their ballots for Jarrett were unable to locate the polls.

A meeting of the McCandless-Wilson supporters is reported to have been held last night, shortly after the receipt of Sheriff Jarrett's letter and demand. Just what transpired could not be ascertained today.

WHAT ABOUT IT NOW?

In Mexico, in Mexico, Where revolutions ebb and flow, And ruthless ruffians roam in bands— Despoiling nature's beautiful lands: No embargo! No embargo!

To Mexico, to Mexico, In thousands now our lads must go To face the bullets that were made in Yankee land. Oh, wicked trade, No embargo! No embargo!

In Mexico, in Mexico, Where streams of Yankee blood will flow, We wait and watch and watch and wait; Supplying arms to seal our fate. No embargo! No embargo!

To Mexico, to Mexico, More diplomatic notes will go, Permitting murderous hordes to band And arm with guns from Yankee land! No embargo! No embargo!

No embargo! No embargo! In Mexico, in Mexico, Where fate will deal her strangest blow, We must denounce the sordid deal; Make the death tool makers feel An embargo! An embargo!

AD CLUB BACKS UP WORK TO AID SOLDIER ON OAHU

lege of good club equipment at Schofield and in Honolulu.

The serious difficulty of finance and permanent management at once presents itself. We are of the opinion that this important matter is as great a national interest as it is local, and we would suggest that careful estimates of financial requirements be formulated.

"The vital question of management and control can, we think, be best provided by the national organization of the Y. M. C. A. These people have men who are equipped in every way to handle problems of this nature, and can at all times be depended upon to operate men's club propositions as permanent institutions. Line Up With Y. M. C. A.

"We therefore urge that the club line up with the national Y. M. C. A. on this matter, and secure their cooperation in obtaining funds for building and equipping and running a Y. M. C. A. at Schofield, and also in Honolulu, primarily for the use of the enlisted men and non-commissioned officers of the United States army and navy.

"We believe that the Honolulu equipment should provide ample and good bedroom accommodations, swimming pool, good, large floor space for social enjoyment and the best educational equipment procurable, that would be adapted to the needs of the men.

Location Suggested.

"The location of a club of this character should, in our opinion, be a matter of especial care; the question of easy access from the water-front and the car lines, as important as is the healthfulness of the site, and merely as an indication of what we consider a suitable location for such an institution; we would direct your attention to the vacant property at the corner of Hotel and Richards streets.

"We believe that if it is found practicable to put into effect the foregoing suggestions, the best interests of the men of the United States army and navy in Hawaii will be materially advanced, and we recommend the foregoing action.

"We further recommend that the president be authorized by the club to appoint a committee of five to confer with other organizations and individuals interested in the same general objects, for the purpose of devising ways and means of effectuating the foregoing recommendations, with instructions to report back to the club the results of their investigations."

ARMY & NAVY FORT SCHOFIELD EASTER SERVICES VERY BEAUTIFUL

(Special Star-Bulletin Correspondence.) SCHOFIELD BARRACKS, April 24.—Easter services at the post chapel yesterday morning could not have been excelled anywhere. The chapel was beautifully arranged for the occasion. The order of service was the highest.

There were but two lacking features: the absence of the chapel and the absence of a pipe organ. During the service a solo and duet was rendered which would have graced Westminster Abbey, London, or Trinity chapel, New York. It was a great credit to the army to know that such talent existed within it. Pvt. Thomas of Company G, 25th Infantry, the chapel organist, acquitted himself beyond expression in the musical rendition. His ability of transposition and harmonic embellishments made him somewhat attractive and marked him as a master of the keyboard.

The large number of officers who attended the morning service also added to the splendor of the service.

The profusion of Easter lilies covering the pulpit; the dignified expositions of Chaplain Aiken, combined with the singing of Easter hymns by the congregation and the solo and duet of most difficult composition, but rendered with ease in perfect symmetry by two officers' wives was indeed an over-awing inspiration. Real angels must have been listening for the reverence of the service was so penetrating that it touched the hearts of the most irreligious.

After the recessional by the choir and a postlude by Thomas all went their way satisfied, hoping to see next Easter as glorious a one as this was. Chaplain and Mrs. Aiken have made the morning service worth while, and a success all along.

Hawaiian birth certificates will be issued by the secretary of the territory, W. W. Thayer, beginning today, he announces. Despite the fact that the new rules regarding their issuance went into effect April 1, it has been impossible to issue them heretofore as the application blanks and other forms necessary have not been ready.

CONSUL MOROI RECEPTION HOST

Hon. Rokuro Moroi, new Japanese consul-general.

Hon. Rokuro Moroi, the new Japanese consul-general, was host at a notable reception yesterday afternoon at the consulate on Nuuanu street. The reception was attended by many consular representatives, navy, army, federal, territorial and municipal officials, professional and business men, and their wives.

Governor Pinkham, accompanied by his aide, Maj. James D. Dougherty, N. H.; Admiral and Mrs. C. J. Boush; Gen. and Mrs. J. P. Wisner; Gen. and Mrs. F. S. Strong; Gen. Johnson, representatives of many countries, many other prominent officials, clergymen, physicians, lawyers and business men, with their wives, were received by Consul-General Moroi and Retiring Consul and Mrs. H. Arita. The consul-general stood between Consul Arita and Mrs. Arita.

Eleve Consul and Mrs. K. Fujii headed the receiving committee, consisting of Mr. and Mrs. S. Awoki, T. Katsunuma, K. Ozawa, Mrs. I. Katsuki, Miss M. Tanaka, Miss H. Miyahara, members of the staff of the consulate and their wives. Mrs. E. L. S. Gordon, wife of the British consul, with Mrs. Howell, wife of Col. D. L. Howell, assisted the committee.

WEATHER MAN THINKS RAIN MAY FALL HERE: LOOKS LIKE SHOWERS

With the wind from the southeast, a high relative humidity, and a low barometer, the local branch of the U. S. weather bureau advises Honoluluans not to be surprised if rain falls in the next 24 hours or less.

At 8 o'clock this morning the barometer was down to 29.94, where it has been up to 30.08 or 30.10. The relative humidity at the same hour was high, 73 per cent, against 60 or 65 last week, and the wind was from the southeast, the direction the komas of the winter usually come from.

"I don't think we are in for any more komas storms," said Meteorologist A. M. Hamrick this morning, "but we may get some rain, as conditions are about right for it."

J. C. ANDERSON ASKS TIME TO CLEAR ACCOUNT

Alleged Irregularity in Handling of Estate is Under Scrutiny

What is alleged to be an irregularity in the management of the affairs of an estate of which John C. Anderson, probate officer, is trustee, was told of today following the circulation of a report to the effect that the funds of the estate were involved.

A careful check on the allegations of the rumor brought a statement from a circuit court official, closely connected with affairs pertaining to the management of estate, that the report of embezzlement is without foundation, but that an irregularity in Anderson's handling of the estate has been discovered.

It was learned from an authoritative source in the circuit court that Mr. Anderson has asked for and been granted time until next Saturday to straighten out the irregularity, the nature of which has not been disclosed.

The estate in question is a small one, with comparatively little funds. It was definitely stated, however, that as far as circuit court officials are aware, there has been no commission of no crime on the part of Mr. Anderson and that the irregularity is not a financial one.

Anderson declared this afternoon that everything can be straightened out by Saturday and that his position will be made perfectly clear, but further than this he did not wish to discuss the matter.

BIDS FOR IMPROVEMENT OF AUWAIOLIMO TRACT OPEN

Lord-Young Engineering Company is the low bidder for the improvement work the territory is to do in the Auwailimo tract. Bids were opened yesterday in the office of the superintendent of public works. Lord-Young Company offers to do the work for $21,454 in 30 days. William Cullen wants $23,500 for the job. The engineer's estimate was $23,155.

The contract will not be awarded until after the bids for curbing in the district are opened by the city on May 2.
